GAME RANGER EXPERIENCE IN SOUTH AFRICA

TAKE a 14-day hands-on eco training safari through South Africa and get a taste of what it is like to be a game ranger.

Travel Associates is offering a unique safari experience for travellers with a passion for the South African wilderness. Departing Johannesburg June 23 2010, this interactive and educational tour explores the Kruger National Park.

Travellers will see roaming wild beasts during game drives and walks, and learn from local experts about the principals of managing wildlife areas for conservation and the preservation of ecosystems.

Tour highlights include experiencing game capture activities, spending a day and night with anti-poaching specialists, observing and collecting data on animals and helping with practical work on invasive plants.

Prices start from $3,119* per person twin share and include 13 nights accommodation in tented camps, meals, instructors and training, game drives, walks and transfers between camps.

International airfares are not included.
