

REF: The Ghan Darwin to Adelaide; AOT

FROM THE TOP END TO THE BOTTOM ON THE GHAN

TAKE a luxury rail journey through Australia's heartland then sample world-class wines produced in South Australia's Barossa Valley on a five night adventure from Travel Associates.

Boarding The Ghan in Darwin, guests will experience one of the most fascinating train journeys in the world as they make their way through the desert extremes of the red centre, stopping in Katherine and Alice Springs before ending in Adelaide.

Wander through the Katherine Museum or visit the School of the Air in Katherine before checking out the Aboriginal artwork in Alice Springs. Guests will then spend three nights in Adelaide where they'll take a full-day wine tour of the Barossa Valley and city sightseeing tour.

Prices start from $1,926* per person twin share and include two nights on board The Ghan in Gold Service, three nights in 4.5 star accommodation in a Deluxe room in Adelaide and a full-day Barossa Valley wine tour with sightseeing as per itinerary.

Airfares to tour start and end are not included. Package is valid for sale until 30 June 2010. Valid for travel until 31 December 2010.
