PEN A MASTERPIECE WITH HELP FROM THOMAS KENEALLY

MEET internationally-renowned author Thomas Keneally and hear how the Booker Prize winner's country town childhood has influenced his work on a writer's escape to outback Australia.

Travel Associates is offering an exclusive three-day culture and literary experience with accommodation based in the luxury tents of Longitude 131° in Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park.

Guests can be as creative as they want during a morning of story-telling as they listen to Keneally talk about his childhood and his work. Guests will also learn about Aboriginal art and meet an indigenous artist to who will teach the skill of dot painting. Trip highlights include a scenic helicopter ride over Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park and a gourmet dinner under the stars at sumptuous Table 131° with Keneally as your host.

The tour runs from 9 – 11 July 2010. Flights to and from Uluru are not included.

Prices start from $4,920* per person twin share and includes two nights accommodation, all meals and selected alcoholic drinks, writing session with Keneally, helicopter flight, entrance to Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park, transfers and leather portfolio and pen.
