SHOP UNTIL YOU DROP IN MALAYSIA

SHOPAHOLICS and fashionistas can wrap up the Christmas shopping early on a small group tour that is available now from Travel Associates.

The company has unwrapped a six-day Kuala Lumpur shopping and fashion tour that will focus on the city's designer stores, boutiques and bargain markets in the lead-up to this year's Christmas period.

The tour, from December 2 to 7, 2010, visits Malaysia's shopping hotspots, including the Chinatown markets, the Craft Cultural Complex, Sungei Wang Plaza, Central Market, Suria KLCC and Pavillion Shopping Centre.

Other highlights include the limestone Batu Caves, Royal Palace, National Museum, the KL Tower revolving restaurant and the award-winning Villa Danieli trattoria.

Prices are per person twin share and start from $2690* departing Brisbane and Perth, from $3140* departing Sydney and Melbourne, and from $3190* departing Adelaide.

The price include return economy Malaysian Airlines airfares to Kuala Lumpur, five nights' accommodation at the Westin hotel, a 50-minute spa treatment at Mandara Spa, some meals and a range of sightseeing and shopping tours.

The tour is available for sale until November 30, 2010 unless sold out.

Phone Williams & Turner Travel Associates on 1800 852199 for bookings and details.
