

REF: Flinders Ranges – online

A HOLIDAY HOME ON THE RANGE

A LUXURY Flinders Ranges homestead that is about to celebrate its 150th birthday is the perfect setting for a two-night outback holiday.

Travel Associates is offering holidaymakers a chance to stay at the 24,000-hectare Arkaba Station, which is a working sheep station that dates back to 1851 and is.

The station, surrounded by spectacular Australian outback scenery, has five guest suites, each with private bathrooms, a pool, open bar and a resident chef who provides traditional station cuisine infused with native elements.

Attractions include the station's extraordinary variety of birds and wildlife, the nearby Flinders Ranges National Park and the opportunity to take part in scenic flights over Wilpena Pound and the salt flats of Lake Torrens.

Package prices start from $1439* per person twin share and include two nights' accommodation in a deluxe room, meals and drinks, return transfers from Port Augusta or Hawker and scheduled activities.

Activities range from four wheel drive safaris and mountain biking to wildlife viewing and other guided excursions.

Phone Travel Associates on 1800 044 066 for bookings and details.

ENDS: Media enquiries to Deana Puglisi (07) 3170 8106

*Prices are subject to change and availability