

100922 ukgardens

TA ref: Spring Gardens of England Tour

SPRING INTO ENGLAND'S BEST GARDENS

WILSON & Turner Travel Associates is planting the seeds to lure greenthumbs and budding garden designers to England for a spring holiday.

The company is organising an exclusive Spring Gardens of England Tour that will take in the 2011 Chelsea Flower Show, in addition to showcasing stately homes, castle and specialist gardens, gourmet food producers and providores.

Highlights will include visits to the famous flower show, Hampton Court Gardens, Kensington Palace Gardens, Sissinghurst and Hever Castle, Highgrove shop in Tetbury, Daylesford Organic Farm, Hidcote Gardens, the Cotswolds gardens and Waddesdon manor gardens.

Guests will also have the chance to see the sights of England at their own pace, as the itinerary will blend formal sightseeing with free time for further exploration.

Well known Tasmanian gardener designer and horticulturist Karen Wagner will lead the 20-day tour, which will take off from Australia on May 17, 2011.

Package prices start from $8945* per person twin share from Melbourne, from $9245* from Hobart or Sydney or from $9445* from Adelaide or Brisbane.

The prices include return economy airfares, 16 nights' accommodation, some meals, travel onboard a 16-seat touring coach, sightseeing as outlined in the itinerary, a Great British heritage Pass, return airport transfers in London and a tour host and driver's services.

Phone Wilson & Turner Travel Associates on 1800 039 998 for bookings and details.

ENDS Media enquiries to Kirsty Whittaker

*Prices are subject to change and availability

September 24, 2010